ANACOSTIA.

The Anacestia Methodist Episcopal church was the scene of a very pretty weighing last evening, when Miss Louise Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Miller, or V street, became the bride of Mr. Charles Scherzer, also of Anacoutia. The edite was beautifully decorated, and as the organ played the wedding march the procession marched hito the church Miss Miller accompanied by her father. She was attired in white and carried a large bouquet of roses, while the mail of honor was attired in white and carried pink flowers. Rev. Samuel W. Griffin, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony, which was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents in V street. Mr. and Mrs. Scherzer will make their home in Anacostia, following a trip.

A STATE OF

M. B. Miller, Well-known TELLS OF HER FIGHT

Miller, a well-known theatrical man and former actor, died at 7 o'clock to-night at the Alexandria Hospital, from an attack of heart trouble complicated with bronchitis. He had been ill since November 18. Mr. Miller was born in Homer, N. Y., sixty-eight years ago, and had been a star in many stock companies in former years. At the time of his death he was manager of the Clara Turner Stock Company and had managed various theatrical companies during the last twelve years. Mr. Miller was a member of the Eagles and Knights of Pythias. The body was removed to Wheatley's undertaking chapel, Arrangements for the funeral have not yet been made.

Voters of Alexandria have five additional days in which to pay their politiaxes according to an announcement made to-day by City Treasurer Thomas W. Rohimson. Monday will, therefore, he the last day the voters will have if they desire to participate in the spring election for mayor and councilmen. More than 1.500 had already paid their politiaxes at the hour of closing to-day, and it is expected that the number will reach something like 1.500 by the hour of closing Monday afternoon.

In the Corporation Court to-day, in the case of John P. Mahoney against the Southern Railway Company, a suit to recover damages in the sum of 18,000, the plaintiff demurred to special plea. Following argaments on the demurrer, plaintiff wert was quashed and suit disminsed at cost of plaintiff.

George D. Hopkins, of this city, has purchased from J. Pavid Lannon, of Female Weakness.

This is the story of one who knows in should have taken better care of myself, I suppose. I was sick, suffering and of the bast women to make rensus returns and of these who are property holders to pay taxer. On the nights the enumerators were scheduled to call at their homes, many women remained away gathering in groups of from ten to twenty at certain houses whose owners declined to fill in the census blanks.

CURIOUS BITS OF HISTORY.

A MODEST HERO.

At one time when the cause of At one time when the cause of Italian independence seemed to be rulned, hundreds of brase men who had fought for it sought refuge in the United States. Among them was Gen, Garibaidi. In the summer of 1850 he reached New York, where he was solicited to "accept an ovation." He mod-estly asked to be excused, saying that to make a public exhibition of himself was unnecessary and would not help the cause, nor would the American people, he thought, esterm him less because he veiled his sorrows in privacy All he asked was to be allowed to earn his living by honest la-bor, and remain under the pro-tection of the American flag until the time should come for renew-ing the fight for liberty which had been interrupted for a mea-son. So from being a general in the patriot army of Italy Gart-haldi became for a time a candlemaker on Staten Island, and then resumed his old calling of mari-
